We reserve the right to refuse service if it is determined that the child will not benefit from the program offered. We will terminate service if:

1. Parents demonstrate a lack of cooperation with the rules and regulations concerning the program.
2. Children who exhibit patterns of behavior that endanger others.
3. It becomes evident after admission that the child's behavior does not come within our ability to deal effectively with such behavior and is limiting our services to the other children in the program.
